Welcome

Welcome to the University of Waikato's graduation ceremonies. I am honoured to host you at this special occasion where we acknowledge and celebrate the immense achievements of our students, your friends and loved ones. Together we share the graduands' pride in their success, and acknowledge the tremendous hard work that underpins the completion of a university qualification.

On behalf of the University I congratulate all graduands and wish you future success and happiness.

Professor Roy Crawford
Vice-Chancellor

A Brief History of the University of Waikato Te Whare Wānanga o Waikato

The University had its genesis in 1956, when a small group of visionary individuals began working towards the founding of a university for the people of the South Auckland region. A college, a sub-branch of Auckland University, was established in 1959 and in 1965, after opening its doors in 1964, the University of Waikato was officially opened by the then Governor-General, Sir Bernard Fergusson (later Lord Ballantrae).

From these modest beginnings, on what was largely farmland and with only a handful of temporary buildings and staff, the University of Waikato now provides around 205 qualifications to a student population of approximately 13,000, of whom more than 4,800 complete a qualification annually. Today, the University employs approximately 1,560 full-time equivalent staff and makes a significant contribution to the local economy.

The University of Waikato celebrated its 40th anniversary in 2004. This important milestone was accompanied by significant change - we mourned the death of our Foundation Vice-Chancellor, Professor Don Llewellyn, and farewelled our third Vice-Chancellor, Professor Bryan Gould, who retired after ten years in the post. With great optimism and a focus on the future, we commenced the next chapter of our history by welcoming our fourth Vice-Chancellor, Professor Roy Crawford, at the beginning of 2005.

Our focus on the future was quickly cemented, as we embarked on the development and delivery of an ambitious Vision for the period 2005 – 2015. The key themes of our new Vision are Excellence, Distinctiveness and International Connectedness. We are committed to delivering a world-class education and research portfolio, providing a full and dynamic university experience which is distinctive in character, and pursuing strong international linkages to advance knowledge. The Vision articulates a strong framework which will define our fifth decade, presenting us with many exciting challenges and opportunities.

We play an essential leadership role in the prosperity of our region, which we define in terms of the tribal boundaries of the 16 iwi affiliated to Te Rōpu Manukura. It extends from Manukau down to Wanganui, across to Kahungunu, along the East Coast up to Hikurangi, continuing up to the Bay of Plenty, to the Coromandel and back to Manukau. We sit at the heart of a community of strong regional partnerships and take pride in the extent to which we reflect and serve the strengths and interests of our region.

Our quality Hamilton campus environment, with grounds covering an area of 65 hectares, continues to be a source of community pride. The grounds include sports fields, walkways, three lakes and extensive gardens. Great care is taken to maintain the beautiful grounds, while also developing the built environment to accommodate the University's growing needs.

As part of its new Vision, the University will promote the concept of a full university experience, which is more than just the accumulation of knowledge. Through a range of campus development and related strategies, it will enhance the entire intellectual, cultural, political, social and recreational life that students enjoy while enrolled.

The Hamilton campus is home to the WEL Energy Trust Academy of Performing Arts, a high-technology facility for the performance of drama, music, dance and Māori and other cultural performing arts. It is, at the same time, a vital teaching facility for the University, and a world-class performance venue, which has been welcomed by the Hamilton and wider Waikato communities who share it. Such is its great success that additions and extensions are being planned.

We are committed to increasing both the tertiary participation rate of our regional population overall, as well as the proportions of new school-leavers and postgraduate students. We are also committed to ensuring the ongoing relevance of the programmes we offer, and the effectiveness of our delivery of them. The University continues to deliver programmes in various locations throughout our region and more than 20 of our qualifications are available entirely or mostly through online study.

The University of Waikato has a campus at Tauranga and a strong relationship with the Bay of Plenty Polytechnic. The collaborative arrangements enjoyed by both institutions include the sharing of resources and services and joint provision of professional development and training opportunities for staff. Credit transfer arrangements between the two institutions are well-established.

The University has recently reaffirmed its commitment to the community in the Bay of Plenty and to sustaining that commitment in a manner that is focused and directly aligned with its new Vision and its role as one of the key drivers of economic growth in the region. With this in mind, the University will align itself with the region's economic and growth strategies as a means of ensuring that its own strategies are co-ordinated and integrated with those of the Bay of Plenty community.

Co-operation and collaboration are fundamental principles to the way the University of Waikato operates. We are a member of the Tertiary Education Alliance, alongside the Bay of Plenty Polytechnic, Tairāwhiti Polytechnic, Waiariki Institute of Technology, Western Institute of Technology and Wintec. This alliance is a highly successful example of a co-operative approach to education planning and provision. It provides clear academic pathways through agreed articulation, credit and contractual teaching arrangements, and as a result, students in the region can take advantage of a variety of tertiary opportunities that would not otherwise be so accessible.

We adhere to the concept of a university education that is, by definition, research-led. Through sustained research intensity and the attraction of high levels of external funding from public sector and industry sources, we aim to maintain a highly competitive research profile. Our staff participate in a wide range of research consortia, clusters and multi-institutional research teams locally, regionally, nationally and internationally. Located close to a recently established Innovation Park, we are exceptionally well-placed to contribute to the local and national economies by enhancing business capability in the region and increasing opportunities for the commercialisation of intellectual property.

We continue to foster a culture of internationalisation, measured through the diversity of our student and staff profiles, the support and celebration of that diversity, a long-standing pride in our reputation for the pastoral care of our international students, and the measures we take through curriculum, programme design and our global networks and connections to international influences.

From its inception the University has always been at the forefront of initiatives in support of Māori aspirations. Sir Bernard Fergusson made a deep and lasting impression with his message at the official opening of the University, saying that Waikato was "the first of the New Zealand universities to be planted right in the heart of traditionally Māori country". Since our foundation, we have worked closely with local iwi, particularly Tainui, to make the University accessible to Māori students and to foster an environment of success. Today we are proud to have the highest proportion of Māori students of any New Zealand university.

As part of our role in relation to life-long learning, the University's Centre for Continuing Education delivers each year, both in Hamilton and Tauranga, an adult and community education programme that draws heavily on university scholarship and expertise. We have always regarded our community education programmes as a very important and valuable dimension of our academic provision, a significant dimension of our Charter commitments to our region, to equity of access and to kaupapa and tikanga Maori.

We are proud of our evolution into a truly New Zealand institution which, as our motto reflects, supports our country's nation-building policies and reflects our nation's identity.

University Officers' Profiles

Chancellor

Mr John Jackman B.Ag.Sci Lincoln

John Jackman was raised on a sheep and cropping farm at Cheviot, North Canterbury. He graduated in Agricultural Science from Lincoln College and joined the then Department of Agriculture in Hamilton in 1968.

Initially a financial adviser to the farming sector, he became involved in major change situations – initially in farming but this soon extended into new technologies and agricultural policy. He played significant roles both in implementing and dismantling the Government interventions in agriculture of the 70's and 80's. During this time he also took a 4-year overseas posting as Counsellor (Agriculture) at the NZ High Commission, London.

He returned from overseas to a position in the Directorate General of the Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries where he was at the interface between the Ministry and the Minister. In 1987 the MAF undertook a major restructuring and with it John changed his career path. He moved from Head Office to a frontline regional role and was then promoted to Director of North Region of MAFTech based at Ruakura with responsibility for 40 percent of MAF's research and consultancy. This was a period of intense entrepreneurial activity as science and advisory services sought to become commercially viable. The next step was the formation of the Crown Research Institutes. John convened the establishment unit for AgResearch – the largest CRI. He was appointed foundation Deputy CEO of AgResearch.

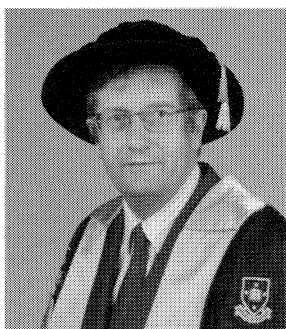

John resigned from AgResearch in 1995 to form a consultancy practice under the name of Foresight Consultancy. He undertook overseas assignments for the World Bank, however his primary interest lay with the Waikato Innovation Park and related projects.

In 2000 he was appointed to the Council of the University of Waikato as a Government nominee. He currently chairs the Finance Committee of the University.

5

Vice-Chancellor

Professor Roy Crawford BSc(Hons) PhD DSc Belfast FIMechE FIMMM FEng

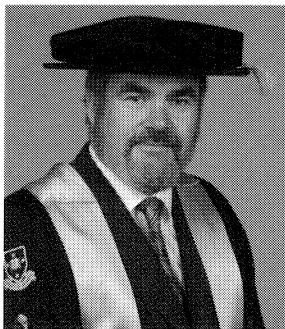

Professor Crawford was born in Lisburn, Northern Ireland and has spent most of his academic and professional life in Northern Ireland. He is a Professor of Mechanical Engineering, whose primary research interest has been in the mechanical properties and processing behaviour of plastics. From 1999 - 2001 he was Professor of Mechanical Engineering at the University of Auckland, and has on-going research and business interests in New Zealand associated with the establishment of a new polymer research centre. His previous position was the Senior Pro Vice-Chancellor at Queen's University, Belfast, with special responsibility for Research and Development.

Professor Crawford has been a senior member of a small team that manages all aspects of Queen's University. He has published 7 books and over 270 papers and has been a member of numerous government panels and research grant committees in the UK. He is a member of a number of professional organisations and a Fellow of the Royal Academy of Engineering. He is directly involved in a wide range of professional activities and organisations, including consultancies and company directorships.

Deputy Vice-Chancellor

Professor Doug Sutton BA MA PhD Otago

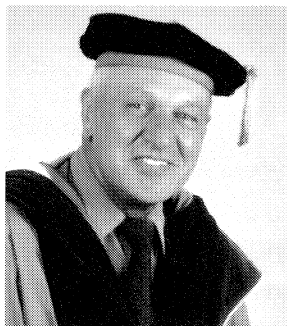

Professor Sutton was born and raised in Southland, attending school there before proceeding to the University of Otago. Degrees there in Arts, Anthropology and Archaeology led to research in the Smithsonian Institute and a teaching post at the University of British Columbia, then appointment to the Anthropology Department of the University of Auckland. There he was promoted to a personal Chair, as co-founder of the Centre for Archaeological Research and instigator of a series of interdisciplinary research programmes, with support from the Marsden Fund, the Foundation of Research, Science and Technology and a range of other funding agencies. He served as Dean of Arts in the University of Auckland from 1997 until 2002. The Faculty was successful during that period in increasing research and creative work, in broadening and diversifying the range of agencies and philanthropists from whom it received support and in marshalling some considerable initiatives, including those which led to the formation of the School of Creative and Performing Arts, various new departments and a range of research centres and other intellectual foci.

His recent move to the Waikato builds logically on previous experience, bringing with it a commitment to the further growth of the University as a provider of distinguished education, across a comprehensive range of research-based disciplines and interdisciplinary programmes, which will bring value to the region and New Zealand more broadly. That value will affect prosperity and wealth creation in the economy of the Waikato and Bay of Plenty, while also adding to the diversity and value of cultural and intellectual life of the communities.

Pro Vice-Chancellor (Māori)

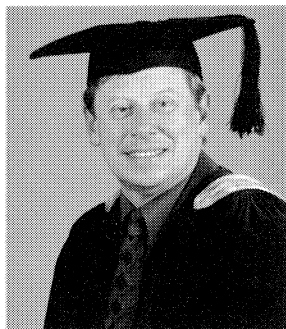

Professor Tamati Reedy BA MA Auckland MA PhD Hawai'i

Professor Reedy is the Pro Vice-Chancellor with responsibilities for Māori development in the University and Professor of Māori Sustainable Enterprise with the Waikato Management School. Professor Reedy was the foundation Dean and Professor of the School of Māori and Pacific Development at the University of Waikato, created in 1996. Professor Reedy gained his MA in English at Auckland University, and an MA and Doctorate in Linguistics at the University of Hawai'i. He was also a Fulbright Scholar at the University of Alabama. Prior to his appointment as Dean in 1996, Professor Reedy was the Chief Executive and Secretary for the Māori Affairs Department, New Zealand. He was awarded the 1990 New Zealand Medal. With his wife Tilly, he has managed his own consultancy business in education and training in the public and private sector until his appointment at Waikato University. He is Ngāti Porou.

Director of Tauranga

Associate Professor Alan Neilson BSocSc MSocSc Waikato MSc York (UK)

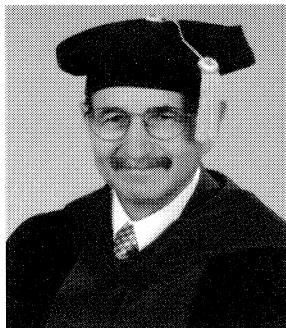

Associate Professor Neilson was educated at Tauranga Boys' College, the University of Waikato and the University of York (UK).

He is the Director of the University of Waikato at Tauranga and was previously Pro Vice-Chancellor (Resources) for the University of Waikato. He has been a Pro Vice-Chancellor for 9 years and prior to his appointment to Tauranga, was also a senior lecturer in the Economics Department and Associate Director of Executive Education at the University of Waikato.

From 1999 to 2005 he held the position of the chair/president, and since 2005, Executive Director, of the Research Committee on Armed Forces and Society of the International Political Science Association. A former U.S. Peace Corps volunteer in Northeast Brazil from 1970-1972, he was a Fulbright senior lecturer at the University of Dar es Salaam, Tanzania in East Africa during the 1989-1990 academic year. He has published in academic books and journals on democratisation, economic development and civil-military relations in Brazil as well as in Africa and Eastern Europe.

Dean of Computing and Mathematical Sciences

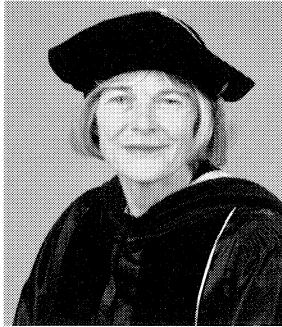

Professor Mark Apperley BE PhD Auckland FNZCS

Professor Apperley was appointed to the position of Dean of Computing and Mathematical Sciences in 2003. He began his academic career in electrical engineering but after completing his PhD at Auckland University, and a period of post-doctoral research at Imperial College in London, he returned to New Zealand in 1975 to take up a lectureship in Computer Science at the University of Waikato. In 1985 he became Professor and Head of the Computer Science Department at Massey University. He returned to Waikato University in 1994 as Chair of the Department. He has been very active in research in the areas of human-computer interaction and information visualisation throughout his academic career, and has published extensively on these topics. He is a Fellow of the New Zealand Computer Society.

Dean of Education

Professor Noeline Alcorn QSO BA Victoria MA Canterbury PhD California DipEd Massey DipT FNZEAS

Professor Alcorn taught in New Zealand secondary schools for some years before undertaking her doctoral study at the University of California. She held lecturing and management positions at Auckland Teachers' College and was the Director of the Centre for Continuing Education at the University of Auckland before taking up her current position as Dean of the School of Education. Professor Alcorn was Chairperson of the New Zealand Council for Educational Research from 1988 until 1993, and was awarded the Suffrage Medal in 1993. She is a Fellow of the New Zealand Educational Administration Society. Professor Alcorn has published widely in children's literature, school principalship and action research, including a biography of C.E. Beeby. She is the inaugural chair of the Teacher Education Forum of Aotearoa New Zealand and current chair of the Performance Based Research Fund (PBRF) education panel.

Professor Farrar joined the University of Waikato in 2004 as Dean of the School of Law. He was formerly Dean of Law at the University of Canterbury and Dean of Law and Acting Vice-Chancellor at Bond University, Queensland. He is an Emeritus Professor of Law, Bond University, and a Professorial Fellow, University of Melbourne.

Professor Farrar is a member of the Legislation Advisory Committee and has been a consultant to the Business Council of Australia, Australian Institute of Company Directors, IFSA and New Zealand Treasury. He set up Community Legal Advice Centres in Bristol, Christchurch and the Gold Coast. He has experience in Company Law, Corporate Governance and Insolvency.

Dean of Management

Professor Michael Pratt BA (Hons) Sheffield MCom Witwatersrand DCom South Africa ACA FCA

A specialist in the areas of performance, organization theory and auditing Professor Pratt joined the University of Waikato in 1990 as Dean of the Waikato Management School. He was previously Professor and Head of Department of Accounting at Massey University. With extensive industry experience Professor Pratt is currently involved in researching peak performing organisations. He has published eight books and more than one hundred journal and conference papers. He advises the CEOs and top management teams of several leading global corporations in the USA and Europe on inspiration, peak performance, and value creation.

Dean of Māori and Pacific Development

Professor G. R. Aroha Yates-Smith BA MA PhD Waikato DipT Hamilton Teachers' College

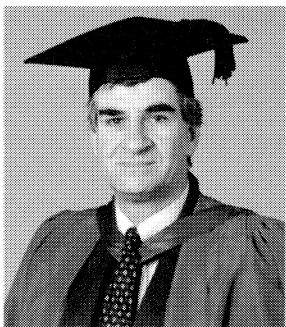

He uri tēnei nō ngā iwi i heke mai ai i runga i ngā waka o Te Arawa, o Tainui, o Takitimu, o Horouta, me ngā iwi hoki i take mai nei i te whenua nei, i te Ūkaipō.

Professor Yates-Smith is the Dean of Te Pua Wānanga ki te Ao, the School of Māori and Pacific Development. She completed her BA, MA, and PhD at the University of Waikato, and her Diploma of Teaching at the Hamilton Teachers' College. Aroha entered this University as a Junior Lecturer in 1986, after having taught Māori and German at Hillcrest High School. She held a Fulbright Scholarship at the University of Hawai'i, at Manoa in 1992 and in 1999 became the first PhD graduate from Te Pua Wānanga ki te Ao. She was the recipient of Te Rangi Hiroa (Sir Peter Buck) medal in 2003 for her analysis of the role of women in pre-contact Māori society. Professor Yates-Smith's research interests lie in the study of the feminine in Māori society and Māori spirituality.

Dean of Science and Engineering

Professor Richard Price BSc (Hons) Australian National University PhD Otago

After 24 years on the academic staff of La Trobe University in Melbourne, Australia, Professor Price joined the University of Waikato as Dean of the School of Science and Engineering in 1998. He gained his bachelors degree in geology from Australian National University, and was awarded his doctorate from Otago University in 1974. His major research interests include the application of trace element, major element and isotope geochemistry to geological problems throughout Australia, New Zealand and the Pacific. With a distinguished academic and publishing record to his credit, Professor Price is currently involved in a co-operative research project studying the geology of Mounts Ruapehu and Taranaki with academic colleagues from Auckland, Victoria and Massey Universities, University College, Cork (Ireland) and Macquarie University (Australia).

The University Crest

THE UNIVERSITY OF WAIKATO
Te Whare Wānanga o Waikato

The motto, Ko Te Tangata, means 'For the People' and reflects the University's philosophy that people are central to the institution and its most valued resource. The outside red border is a stylised fern frond or pitau that symbolises new birth, growth, vitality, strength and achievement. Inside the border is the University's coat of arms. The open book surrounded by the four stars of the Southern Cross is a symbol of learning. The crest design is in the University's colours of black, red and gold.

Ceremonial Traditions

Elements of university graduation ceremonies have evolved from the 12th century when the first universities emerged in Europe. The organisation of medieval universities was modelled on the established institutions of the day – the church, the monastery, and the guild.

Latin was the language used by medieval scholars, and it is from Latin that the words 'university' and 'degree' are derived. The Latin term universitas means a guild or union and universities started as a scholastic guild – a self-constituted community of teachers and scholars.

The word graduate comes from the Latin word gradus, which means step. Admission to study a bachelors degree was the first step taken towards completing a university education. The second step was to become a 'master'. Masters were Master of Arts graduates whose degrees licensed them to teach. The Chancellor, an officer of the cathedral, originally granted teaching licences.

Ceremonial Robes

The academic gowns and hoods worn by graduates and University staff today are fashioned on everyday medieval garments.

In the Middle Ages the corporate existence of universities was recognised and sanctioned by civil or ecclesiastical authority. The regalia worn by graduates and university staff today reflect this mix of medieval governance. Robes worn by the Chancellor resemble those worn by the Lord Chancellor of England. Graduates and academic staff wear gowns similar to the dress of medieval clergy. Hoods are also fashioned on an everyday medieval garment, although the coloured lining was a later addition to indicate the wearer's university and degree.

University of Waikato Academic Dress

Academic regalia are as follows:

First Bachelors: Black gown; black hood with gold lining; black mortarboard.

Bachelors with Honours: Black gown; black hood with gold lining and gold border 5cm in width; black mortarboard.

Masters: Black gown; gold hood with gold lining; black mortarboard.

MPhil: Black gown; crimson hood with crimson lining; black mortarboard.

PhD: Maroon gown; crimson hood with crimson lining; black Tudor bonnet.

DLit, DSc: Crimson gown; crimson hood with crimson lining; black Tudor bonnet with gold cord and tassel.

HonD: Crimson gown; gold hood with gold lining; black Tudor bonnet with gold cord and tassel.

Chancellor and Vice-Chancellor: Black gown with lining of gold satin; gold button and cord just above the sleeves which are also lined with gold satin; a replica of the University's coat of arms just above the gold button on the shoulder; black Tudor bonnet with gold cord and tassel.

Pro Chancellor: Black gown with lining of gold satin; gold button and cord just above the sleeves which are lined with black satin; black Tudor bonnet with gold cord and tassel.

24 – 28 April 2006

Honorary Doctorate of the University of Waikato

Sir Howard Morrison OBE of Te Arawa will be awarded the degree of Honorary Doctor of the University of Waikato at a graduation ceremony on 28 April 2006. The award recognises his outstanding contribution to the community, particularly in the areas of Māori education, culture and business development. Sir Howard enjoys iconic status as a professional entertainer in New Zealand and internationally. He has worked tirelessly to apply his high profile and broad connections to worthy causes, in so doing forging significant opportunities for young people, and making tangible contributions to social and business development, particularly in the Bay of Plenty and East Coast regions. Sir Howard is a founder and trustee of the Manaakitanga Aotearoa Trust, an NZQA registered Private Training Establishment in Rotorua. He established the Sir Howard Morrison Education Foundation in 2005, and the Owen Glen Scholarship in 2006, providing support for students from Te Arawa commencing university study. Charitable organisations that enjoy his patronage include the Books in Homes Trust, Victim Support, Parenting with Confidence and the Life Education Trust. Sir Howard has used his business expertise widely and generously, holding positions on numerous Boards, such as the New Zealand Tourism Board, the New Zealand Broadcasting Authority and the New Zealand Arts and Crafts Institute, and he is an elected member of the Ngāti Whakaue Tribal Lands Incorporation. He has received two Queen's Honours - a Knighthood in 1990 and an O.B.E. in 1996.

Jeff Jones will be awarded the degree of Honorary Doctor of the University of Waikato at a graduation ceremony on 24 April 2006. The award recognises Jeff's outstanding service to the community in the field of environmental management, and his strong interest in the well-being of the University of Waikato. In February 2006 Jeff retired, after 17 years as the Chief Executive of Environment Bay of Plenty, the key environmental protection agency in the region. Trained as an engineer, Jeff has overseen the successful establishment of effective environmental management plans and protocols in one of the fastest growing areas in New Zealand. Jeff has been a long-standing supporter of the University of Waikato, and has been actively involved with its research and research training activities. Through Environment Bay of Plenty, he has supported graduate Science and Engineering students by providing them with research and work placement opportunities. He was a key driver behind the establishment in 2003 of the University's Chair in Lakes Management and Restoration, an initiative which has already delivered important research outcomes for lakes environmental management generally, as well as significant applied benefits to the Bay of Plenty community, through the development of integrated management and restoration plans for the region's many lakes.

Qualifications conferred/awarded at other ceremonies

Honorary Doctorate of the University of Waikato

Ken Arvidson was awarded the degree of Honorary Doctor of the University of Waikato at a function on 12 April 2006. The award recognised Ken's distinguished contribution to learning and scholarship in the Letters, and his national and international reputation as both a poet and a critic of Australian, New Zealand and Pacific literature. Ken began publishing poems in local literary magazines in the 1950s, and received the earliest of his many distinctions for poetry in 1963, when he was awarded the Macmillan Brown Prize for Literature. After completing an outstanding Master of Arts degree focused on the works of John Ruskin, Ken began his career as an English lecturer at Flinders University of South Australia in 1967, followed by a period at the University of the South Pacific where he developed a ground-breaking degree programme in English and Commonwealth Literature. Ken joined the University of Waikato in 1974, becoming an Associate Professor in 1985 and making an exemplary contribution to the University until his retirement in 2002. Ken is renowned as an expert in the field of South Pacific literature, and a highly regarded commentator on New Zealand poetry and fiction. He has made an enormous contribution to New Zealand Letters, as a founding member of the editorial board of the Journal of New Zealand Literature, the chair of SPACIALS (South Pacific Association of Commonwealth Language and Literature Studies) from 1994 - 1996, and a poetry and fiction judge for the New Zealand Book Awards, and the BNZ Katherine Mansfield Award.

God Defend New Zealand

God of Nations at Thy feet
 In the bonds of love we meet
 Hear our voices we entreat
 God defend our free land

Guard Pacific's triple star
 From the shafts of strife and war
 Make her praises heard afar
 God defend New Zealand
