The University of Waikato

The Crest

The outside red border – a stylised fern frond or pitau – symbolises new birth, growth, vitality, strength and achievement. Inside the border is the University's coat of arms. The open book surrounded by the four stars of the Southern Cross is a symbol of learning. The crest design is in the University's colours of black, red and gold.

Ko Te Tangata

The University's motto, Ko Te Tangata/ For the People, reflects our intrinsic belief that people are central to the institution and are its most valued resource.

Welcome

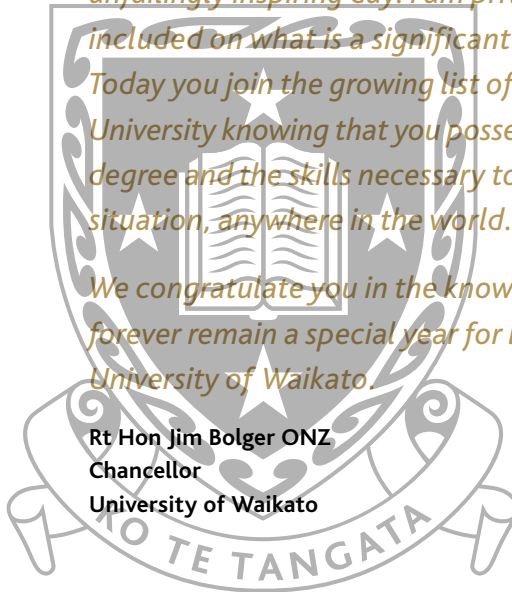

There is an added significance to this year's graduation ceremonies, with the University of Waikato marking its 50th anniversary in 2014.

At our first graduation ceremony in 1967 there were just 19 graduates. Now we congratulate more than 3,000 students each year.

While the numbers have changed, this is still an unfailingly inspiring day. I am privileged to again be included on what is a significant stage in your lives. Today you join the growing list of graduates of this University knowing that you possess a world-class degree and the skills necessary to succeed in any situation, anywhere in the world.

We congratulate you in the knowledge that 2014 will forever remain a special year for both you and the University of Waikato.

Rt Hon Jim Bolger ONZ,
Chancellor
University of Waikato

Today marks an important milestone in the lives of our graduands and their families and friends. It is the culmination of all the hard work and long hours our graduands have put into their studies.

Today also marks the beginning of the next stage of their lives where our students get to put into practice everything they have learned. It is undoubtedly an exciting time. And while our graduates can be found far and wide across the world, they always remain part of the University of Waikato family. That family reaches its own significant achievement this year, celebrating its 50th anniversary.

So we celebrate both individually and collectively today and just like any parents, the University of Waikato is proud of the achievements of our graduates.

Professor Roy Crawford
Vice-Chancellor
University of Waikato

Honorary Doctorates

An Honorary Doctorate is the most prestigious award that the University of Waikato can bestow. For their significant contribution to the University, the Waikato region and the wider New Zealand community, the University is pleased to award the following worthy recipients:

MR WARREN SCOTTER

CONFERRED 22 OCTOBER

Mr Warren Scotter is a senior partner at Harkness Henry Lawyers in Hamilton. He is a litigation specialist who has appeared in hundreds of cases during his 45-year career.

He has also taken active roles in law administration, as president of The Waikato – Bay of Plenty District Law Society, chair of the High Court Practice Committee, chair of the society's Complaints Committee, councillor of the New Zealand Law Society and a member of the New Zealand Law Society's executive. More recently, he has chaired the Law Society's Standards Committee for Waikato Bay of Plenty.

Mr Scotter has also been instrumental in improving the quality of legal standards regulation and has provided support for many new lawyers entering practice in this district.

For the past 25 years, Mr Scotter has been a keen supporter of the University of Waikato, backing the establishment of the Te Piringa - Faculty of Law at Waikato, championing the annual Harkness Henry lectures, which have been running 23 years, and employing University of Waikato law graduates.

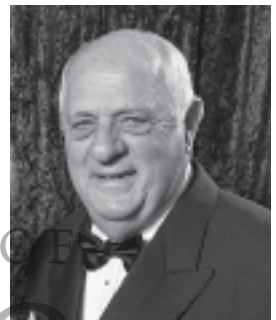

SIR DRYDEN THOMAS SPRING

CONFERRED 22 OCTOBER

Sir Dryden Thomas Spring is one of New Zealand's leading businessmen. He bought his first farm in the heart of the Waikato and has represented farmers on the New Zealand Sharemilkers Association, Waikato Federated Farmers, was Chairman of the New Zealand Co-operative Dairy Company and then Chairman of the New Zealand Dairy Board for 10 years.

He has received numerous awards and appointments for his work, culminating in 1994 when he was knighted for services to the dairy industry. Sir Dryden has been chairman or director of some of New Zealand's largest companies, was a member of the APEC Eminent Persons Group which drafted the APEC Vision of "Free & Open Trade in the Asia Pacific, and has also served on the APEC Business Advisory Council. He is a Laureate of the New Zealand Business Hall of Fame, a Distinguished Fellow of the Institute of Directors, a Life Member of Waikato Federated Farmers and a Distinguished Fellow of Massey University Academy of Agriculture.

He has also been active with a range of charitable and community organisations. Sir Dryden has spent a lifetime making significant contributions, characterised by excellence, persistence and intelligence, to the Waikato, New Zealand and international commerce.

Fanfare

The Processional Fanfare for brass quintet and percussion was written by Associate Professor Martin Lodge from the University of Waikato's Conservatorium of Music.

It was written to mark the University of Waikato's 50th anniversary being celebrated throughout 2014. The work is original except for a snippet of the popular graduation song Gaudeamus Igitur (see page 55), inserted by Associate Professor Lodge to acknowledge the great academic tradition of universities in the western world.

The Processional Fanfare is played as the University graduands and staff ceremonially enter the hall and take the stage for graduation and it is anticipated that the new fanfare will be played at University of Waikato graduation ceremonies from now on.

Pou Whenua

The ceremonial carved Māori mace being used in the Marae ceremony represents the strong links between the University and Māori.

In 1965, just a year after the University of Waikato was established, Kīngitanga head Koroki invited founding University of Waikato Chancellor and Hamilton Mayor Denis Rogers, along with 20 University of Waikato graduates, to Tūrangawaewae Marae in Ngaruawahia.

There he presented the fledgling institution with the carved taonga to be used as ceremonial mace. The piece was carved by master carver Piri Poutapu, who established a carving school at Tūrangawaewae in 1932, and when not being used, it sits in pride of place at the head of the University Council chamber.

Professor Smith (Ngāti Awa, Ngāti Porou) was appointed Pro Vice-Chancellor Māori at the University of Waikato in 2007. Professor Smith previously held the Chair in Education at The University of Auckland and was joint director of Ngā Pae o te Māramatanga (Horizons of Insight), the National Institute of Research Excellence in Māori Development and Advancement. Professor Smith's PhD in education was conferred by The University of Auckland in 1996. Her work in the field of Māori education and indigenous people's education generally, is renowned both here in New Zealand and internationally.

DEAN OF ARTS & SOCIAL SCIENCES

Professor Robert Hannah

BA(Hons) Otago MPhil Oxford FSA

Professor Robert Hannah has an honours degree in Greek from Otago University, and an MPhil in Classical Archaeology from the University of Oxford. He was a member of the Classics Department at Otago from 1980 to 2013, gaining a personal chair in 2006. He is a Fellow of the Society of Antiquaries of London, and has won two Marsden Grants. He has been Dean of the School of Language, Literature and Performing Arts, and Associate Dean of Research within the Division of Humanities at Otago. Professor Hannah currently serves as an auditor for the New Zealand Universities Academic Audit Unit. His research interests are in the uses of astronomy in Greek and Roman culture, especially in relation to calendars and the perception of time. As Honorary Curator of the Classical Collections at the Otago Museum he also publishes on Greek and Roman art.

DEAN OF COMPUTING & MATHEMATICAL SCIENCES

Professor Geoff Holmes

BSc(Hons) PhD S'ton

Professor Holmes gained an honours degree and a PhD in Mathematics from the University of Southampton in the UK. Following a research position in the engineering department at Cambridge University, he joined Waikato in 1987 as a lecturer in computer science, and rose up the academic ranks. He was appointed Dean of the Faculty of Computing & Mathematical Sciences in 2008. His major research interest is in machine learning, a topic that involves mathematics, statistics and computer science. He is best known nationally and internationally for his contributions to applied machine learning, deploying theoretical frameworks in practical situations. He is currently involved in collaborative research with local industry to provide automatic analysis of analytical testing procedures.

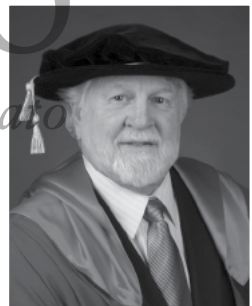

DEAN OF EDUCATION

Speaker Profiles

TUESDAY 21 OCTOBER – 9.30AM (TE KOHINGA MĀRAMA MARAE)

Student Speaker: Te Manaaroa Pirihira Rollo Qualification to be conferred – Doctor of Philosophy

WEDNESDAY 22 OCTOBER – 10AM (CLAUDELANDS EVENTS CENTRE)

Keynote Speaker: Mr Warren Scotter

Litigation specialist Mr Warren Scotter has lived and worked in Hamilton for 45 years. He is a senior partner at Harkness Henry Lawyers in the city, and has long been a supporter of Te Piringa – Faculty of Law at the University of Waikato.

He supported the establishment of the Law School 25 years ago and then the Harkness Henry lectures that have been running for 23 years. His law firm has been a regular employer of Waikato graduates. Mr Scotter has also been instrumental in improving the quality of legal standards regulation and has provided support for many new lawyers entering practice in this district and worked tirelessly to improve administration of law in the Waikato Bay of Plenty region.

Student Speaker: The Honourable Sir Robert Grant Hammond Qualification to be conferred – Doctor of Laws

WEDNESDAY 22 OCTOBER – 2PM (CLAUDELANDS EVENTS CENTRE)

Keynote Speaker: Sir Dryden Thomas Spring

Sir Dryden Thomas Spring is one of New Zealand's leading businessmen. While he was born in Taranaki, he bought his first farm in the heart of the Waikato and has spent many years representing the interests of farmers to the extent that in 1994 he was knighted for services to the dairy industry. In the business world, he has been chairman or director of some of New Zealand's largest companies.

Sir Dryden is a Laureate of the New Zealand Business Hall of Fame, a Distinguished Fellow of the Institute of Directors, a Life Member of Waikato Federated Farmers and a Distinguished Fellow of Massey University Academy of Agriculture. He has also been active with a range of charitable and community organisations. He has spent a lifetime making significant contributions – characterised by excellence, persistence and intelligence – to the Waikato, New Zealand and international commerce.

Student Speaker: Kristie Elizabeth Baillie Qualification to be conferred – Bachelor of Social Sciences

THE UNIVERSITY OF WAIKATO
Te Whare Wānanga o Waikato

A Brief History of the University

The University of Waikato had its genesis in 1956 when a small group of visionary individuals began working towards founding a university for the people of the South Auckland region.

A college, a sub-branch of Auckland University, was established in 1959 and in 1965, after opening its doors in 1964, the University of Waikato was officially opened by the then Governor-General, Sir Bernard Fergusson (later Lord Ballantrae).

From modest beginnings, on what was largely farmland and with a handful of temporary buildings and few staff, the University of Waikato now has a student population of more than 12,000, with nearly 4,000 graduating each year.

In 2014, as the University celebrates its 50th anniversary, there are more than 1,500 academic and professional staff and in the next two years its contribution to the economy is expected to reach the $1 billion mark.

The University is recognised for its strong research and teaching and has forged productive international links with more than 110 universities.

THE CAMPUS

Our Hamilton campus, with grounds covering 65 hectares, continues to be a source of community pride. The grounds include sports fields, walkways, three lakes, extensive gardens and more than 6,000 trees.

At the end of 2011, we opened the new $30million Student Centre which houses the library, computers, meeting and relaxation spaces. It has a 5 Green Star rating from the New Zealand Green Building Council, recognising the environmental and sustainable features of the building's design. The conception and completion of the Student Centre is a further demonstration of our commitment to the delivery of a world-class education while providing our students with a dynamic student experience.

This will be enhanced with the building in 2014 and 2015 of a Law and Management building.

The University of Waikato has a campus at Tauranga and a strong relationship with the Bay of Plenty Polytechnic, Te Whare Wānanga o Awanuiārangī and Waiariki Polytechnic.

Our Vision

The University of Waikato Vision is to offer:

- » Excellence – to provide world-class teaching and research.
- » Distinctiveness – to have a unique place in tertiary education.
- » International connectedness – to be benchmarked against the best.

To achieve this we invest in the best people in every role, the best facilities and the best systems and structures which allow us to operate a financial model that is sustainable.

Our Commitment

The University of Waikato is committed to creating and building knowledge for the future. We deliver a world-class education and research portfolio within a dynamic and distinctive university environment with strong international connections.

The University of Waikato/Te Whare Wānanga o Waikato plays an essential leadership role in the prosperity of our region and our country.

We are a New Zealand institution that looks at the world from a New Zealand perspective. We sit at the heart of a community of strong regional partnerships and take pride in the extent to which we reflect and serve the strengths and interests of our region.

We are also an international university. We consciously measure our performance against internationally established criteria, and our teachers, researchers and students inspire, and are inspired by, an international community of scholars.

We are committed to the recruitment and retention of world-class staff who excel at teaching, research and management in areas that are of particular strategic value to New Zealand. We pursue a research and research-management strategy that supports our country's nation-building policies and promises a generous return in terms of our nation's identity and the wealth and wellbeing of New Zealanders.

We adhere to the concept of a university education that is, by definition, research-led. Through sustained research intensity and the attraction of high levels of external research funding from public sector and industry sources, we aim to maintain a highly competitive research profile.

We are committed to meaningful partnerships under the Treaty of Waitangi and to providing leadership in research, scholarship and education relevant to the needs and aspirations of iwi and Māori communities.

We have developed, or are in the process of developing, world-class research platforms that take us through the research pipeline from discovery to application and commercialisation. Sustainability in all its forms – environmental, economic, social and cultural – is a strong emerging theme in many of these research platforms.

By its nature, sustainability is future-focused and rooted in new ways of thinking and new ways of tackling old problems. The University of Waikato is proud to lay claim to leading the way to a sustainable future.

World Rankings

THE Top 50 universities under 50 years old

The University of Waikato is ranked in the top 50 universities under 50 years old by the influential UK-based Times Higher Education.

Updated rankings were released in May 2014, placing the University of Waikato at 44th in the world – two positions better than when the rankings were last released in 2013 and 14 places higher than the 2012 ranking. The list is an offshoot of the Times Higher Education's (THE) World University Rankings and used the same indicators for judging including research, citations and teaching.

Five subject areas ranked in top 150 worldwide

Five subject areas taught at the University of Waikato have been assessed as being among the top 150 worldwide, with one – Education – ranked 46th in the world.

The other four, all ranked from 101-150, are Modern Languages, Economics and Econometrics, Law and Computer Science and Info Systems.

The QS Subject Rankings, released in February 2014, assessed nearly 800 universities around the world on the quality of 30 different subject areas.

The QS rankings are generally considered among the most influential of university ranking systems and are based on academic and employer surveys, research citations for each subject area, the ratio of students to staff and the number of international students and staff at the university.

Ceremonial Traditions

Elements of university graduation ceremonies have evolved from the 12th century when the first universities emerged in Europe.

The organisation of medieval universities was modelled on the established institutions of the day – the church, the monastery and the guild.

Latin was the language used by medieval scholars, and it is from Latin that the words 'university' and 'degree' are derived. The Latin term universitas means a guild or union, and universities started as a scholastic guild – a self-constituted community of teachers and scholars.

The word graduate comes from the Latin word gradus, which means step. Admission to study a bachelors degree was the first step taken towards completing a university education. The second step was to become a 'master'. Masters were Master of Arts graduates whose degrees licensed them to teach. The Chancellor, an officer of the cathedral, originally granted teaching licences.

CEREMONIAL ROBES AND ACADEMIC DRESS

In the Middle Ages the corporate existence of universities was recognised and sanctioned by civil or ecclesiastical authority. The regalia worn by graduates and university staff today reflect this mix of medieval governance. Robes worn by the Chancellor resemble those worn by the Lord Chancellor of England. Graduates and academic staff wear gowns similar to the dress of medieval clergy. Hoods are also fashioned on an everyday medieval garment, although the coloured lining was a later addition to indicate the wearer's university and degree.
