

The Tupu Rangatahi Tupu Ahuwhenua Scholarship was established in 2024 through a partnership between Te Raupapa | Waikato Management School and the New Zealand Institute of Primary Industry Management. The partnership aims to support Māori agribusinesses and their primary sector assets and aspirations, through a specialised Māori Agribusiness Programme. The Māori food and fibre sector is integral to the economic, cultural, and environmental prosperity of Aotearoa New Zealand. Māori agriculture, forestry and fishing assets are worth over $23 billion and contribute over $2.4 billion to Aotearoa's Gross Domestic Product. The scholarship provides financial support for students and is co-funded by Te Raupapa | Waikato Management School and their partners. At least three scholarships will be offered each year until funds are used (likely by 2027).
